Dear Members of the Korean Church Coalition,

I would like to send warm greetings to all those participating in your organization's prayer vigil addressing the situation of North Korean refugees and to extend my deepest sympathy to your brothers and sisters experiencing hunger, suffering, and oppression.

The human rights situation in North Korea should remain a top concern of both the United States and the United Nations, as free people everywhere should show their support and concern for those suffering under Kim Jong II's tyrannical regime. North Koreans are denied their inherent right to liberty and freedom, but their hope cannot be extinguished.

I applaud your coming together in the name of peace and solidarity to pray for a resolution to the tragic situation in North Korea.

Sincerely,
