Dear Mr. Kim:

Thank you for contacting us to let us know of your work informing the public about the serious humanitarian issues affecting many North Korean refugees. We share your concerns about the suppression of rights for North Koreans and applaud your efforts to educate the public and help build unity to fight the attack on personal freedoms.

We hope that your organization, including congregations in Tennessee, will continue to talk with others about the situation and how we as Americans can encourage basic human rights in other countries.

Thank you again for contacting our office. Please let us know whenever we may be of assistance in the future.

Sincerely,

John Tanner, M.C.
